Dear Sir/Madam,

We are delighted to introduce our company to you.

eMarketing is a component of eBaaba.com (Gambia's Online Marketplace), under which, we manage or build businesses social media platforms and websites in order to keep their online customers updated and grow their audiences.

Our company would be happy to provide you with our services in managing and handling your online advertisements. We have the capacity to create an online brand for your company's products and services via our model of marketing.

We can take care of your online advertisements at a reasonable cost with a huge potential of growth to your company when you outsourced the service to us.

We will grow your company's social media audience with huge followers and make the pages more engaging with often sharing of blogs and articles related to your business.
